EXPERIENCE

Senior Art Director

Health Union • Remote • 2016 - 2023

After years of leading the creative for multiple Health Union websites, I broke away from the editorial team and helped start the product team. Here I was able to work with various teams throughout the company to create interactive products that enriched our users while satisfying the needs of our clients. When building products, I was able to work closely with the tech team and grow as a developer through code reviews.
